PORT SHAFER NEWS FIELD AND BARRACKS.

The B. A. Glee Club met at the usual time and place at Fort Shafter Monday night, Dec. 27. Their introductory entertainment was to be held the night of Dec. 24, but was postponed for various reasons. The first entertainment will be given by the club within the next two or three weeks. Before any music Monday night a formal business meeting was held and new resolutions and the constitution of the club voted on and accepted. The constitution was mostly prepared by Prof. Lee and Hartridge. Both are charter members of the club. A Harbrian was appointed to send for and take care of all the music belonging to the club. A great deal of music has been purchased, but has as yet not arrived, and most of the practicing just at present is done from books of sacred music. Most all the members belonging to the club were present Monday night. Among those that were absent was the secretary, Loveright, of the U. S. S. Iroquois. Hartridge of the hospital corps of Fort Shafter was appointed acting secretary. After the business was transacted Clyde Baldwin of Honolulu entertained with several pieces of beautiful music with the violin, accompanied by piano and guitar. Many visitors were present, and all claim to have enjoyed the evening, and all declare intentions of again visiting the club meetings.

Lecture.
J. W. Wadman, missionary from the Philippine Islands, will give a lecture at the assembly hall, second floor administration building, Fort Shafter, next Sunday at 2:30 p. m. The announcement was made by Prof. Frank L. Lee at the meeting of the B. A. Glee Club last Monday night. All are welcome and cordially invited to attend.

Private Mercer, Company G, 20th Infantry, was released from the post hospital Monday morning.

The new sidewalk at Company G barracks is almost finished and will be ready for use the latter part of this week.

The four men of the bowling team were earnestly practicing on Tuesday morning. Another man to complete the team has not yet been decided upon, but will undoubtedly be secured before many days.

Students Shoot.
The students of the Kamehameha School began target practice on the Fort Shafter target range Tuesday morning. Corporal Strauss and Private Spicer of Company F were detailed to assist in instructing the school boys. Today's reports are that the scores were very good under the circumstances, as this is the first target practice for some of the boys.

Private Krajnak, Company H, was released from the hospital Tuesday and returned to Company H for duty.

NEW YEAR USHERED IN WITH LUAU

An elaborate luau has been planned for New Year's Eve by Mrs. John A. Palmer of the Courtland, who is giving this in honor of her guests, but more especially for the edification of Miss Margaret Giddings and Miss Mary Headen of the Sunshine State, who are wintering in Honolulu. Miss Giddings is the leader of Denver's young society set and is one of the most charming and fascinating young ladies that has come to Honolulu this winter. Miss Headen is a prominent society girl of Fort Collins, Colo., and is here for a two-fold reason. She wishes to see the sights of the Territory before settling down to the stern realities of married life, and to rest up after the arduous duty of planning and getting her troupe ready for the great event of the coming spring.

Miss Headen is to be married to a Kansas City millionaire and is so happy at the bright future in store for her, that she is the life and soul of the Courtland. As both these young ladies have never participated in a luau before, they are in fear and trembling as to what they will be expected to do, and what manner of viands will be served to them. Fingers will not be spread on the lanai instead of under banyan trees. Hawaiian music will be played throughout the evening's entertainment, and the New Year will be ushered in in true Hawaiian fashion. Thirty-six guests have been invited.

300 OFFER NEW SKIN TO SAVE MAN'S LIFE.

Walla Walla, Wash., Dec. 20.—To save the life of Reed Crews, the young lineman who was horribly burned in falling across two electric power wires six weeks ago, physicians today appealed to the public. Three hundred additional volunteers are wanted to give up portions of their skin to be used in grafting upon the burned portions of Crews' body. So great is the interest in the case that already 350 persons have submitted to the skin-grafting operation and approximately 900 inches of cuticle have been transferred to Crews' body.
